“I only drink Champagne when I’m happy, and when I’m sad.
 Sometimes I drink it when I’m alone.
 When I have company, I consider it obligatory.
 I trifle with it if I am not hungry and drink it when I am.
 Otherwise I never touch it – unless I’m thirsty.”
 - Lily Bollinger

"Wine is the ultimate message in a bottle...

It's the most site-specific product of the soil, but its infinite variety of accents only enriches what, like music, is a universal language."

“The Italian language has a saying about the difficulty of translating from one language to another:

traduttore, traditore: “translator, traitor”

A translator is bound to betray the original. The Vine however, is a most faithful translator, catching all the nuances of the soil and transferring them to the grapes.”

Hunnicutt Vineyard

Sonoma Coast, Sonoma County

She shows the signature deep red fruit character of the Sonoma Coast appellation. Hunnicutt is located between Sebastopol and Freestone just a few miles from the California coast. This area is noted for its complex soil composition, cool climate, and great sun exposure and is comprised of three sections from two different clones.

~120 cases produced annually.
